Re: Freedom of Information Act application

In reference to your application made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act), access was sought to:

“Documents showing how many sworn police officers are still in training as at 1 January 2025.”

On 17 January 2025, communication with your office resulted in the scope of your application being amended to:

“Statistics identifying the number of:

- a. Cadets in training (eg in the 1 to 6 month training period) as at 1 January 2025; and*
- b. Probationary Constables in training (eg in the 6 to 9.5 month training period) as at 1 January 2025.”*

South Australia Police (SAPOL) has located information that falls within the scope of your request and agree to release this information to you in full.

In relation to this part of your request

“Statistics identifying the number of Cadets in training (eg in the 1 to 6 month training period) as at 1 January 2025.”

As at 1 January 2025 there were 94 Cadets in training.

In relation to this part of your request

“Statistics identifying the number of Probationary Constables in training (eg in the 6 to 9.5 month training period) as at 1 January 2025.”

As at 1 January 2025 there were 60 Probationary Constables in Training; 45 undertaking the Constable Development Program and 15 undertaking the SAPOL Transition Program (a streamlined 15 week transition program).

Disclosure Log

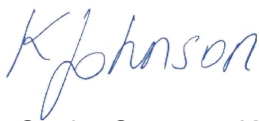

In accordance with the requirements of Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, details of your FOI application, and any documents or information to which you are given access will be published on the SAPOL website Disclosure Log.
